ANNUAL BUTTERFLY RELEASE

Sunday, April 27, 2025 at 10:30 a.m.

A COMPLICATED JOURNEY

It is generally acknowledged that the loss of a child is one of the most, if not one of the most difficult and devastating losses that one can experience. The loss of a child defies the laws of nature. Despite the child's age, this loss can leave an indelible mark on the hearts and souls of the parents and family members, create great emotional and physical distress, and even fracture relationships within the family structure. Some may question why this loss is given this distinction among the hierarchy of losses, as each individual senses that their loss is equally important and as devastating, however, there are several elements unique to the loss of a child that contribute to making this loss difficult to grieve, creating a complicated journey to healing.

See Journey on Page 3

A Special Valentine

A touch of your hand, a smile on your face, another time, another place.

You were my girl, I was your Mom, together we met the world head on.

Death cannot dim the memories so fine.

Your place is there, this world is mine.

But you will always be
my SPECIAL VALENTINE!!

BIRTHDAY RECOGNITION: Birthdays can be found on "Our Children Remembered" page. We do encourage both you and your family to come when it is your child's birthday month, to share your child with all of us with photos and memories. You will receive a special birthday gift in memory of your child. Bring that treasured picture of your child that always makes you smile so we may smile with you. The January Birthday Cake was sponsored by Deborah Reeder in memory of her son Chester "Tootie" Reeder. The February Birthday Cake will be sponsored by Maria Nicholson in memory of her son Dominic Avella.

The mission of The Compassionate Friends is to assist families toward the positive resolution of grief following the death of a child of any age and to provide information to help others be supportive.

Our Monthly Meetings

To all those newly bereaved, who are receiving this newsletter for the first time and to all our Compassionate Friends, we wish you were not eligible to belong to this group, but we want you to know that you and your family have many friends. We, who received love and compassion from others in our time of deep sorrow, now wish to offer the same support and understanding to you. Please know we understand, we care, and we want to help. You are not alone in your grief.

Meetings are held the 2nd Monday of each month at the Foundation Center Conference Room in Lafreniere Park at 7:00 P.M. We are a self-sustaining organization with no funds except what we receive through donations from members and newsletter recipients. Please join with us at a meeting.

Grief support after the death of a child

The Compassionate Friends is a national non-profit, self-help support organization that offers friendship, understanding, and hope to bereaved parents, grandparents and siblings. There is no religious affiliation and there are no membership dues or fees.

The secret of TCF's success is simple: As seasoned grievers reach out to the newly bereaved, energy that has been directed inward begins to flow outward and both are helped to heal.

The vision of The Compassionate Friends is that everyone who needs us will find us and everyone who finds us will be helped.

Big Thanks to Our Steering Committee

At one end of the spectrum, a pregnancy that ends with a stillborn infant or by miscarriage is a major loss for parents who had hopes, dreams, and an entire future planned for this new addition to their family. Unfortunately, our society has unspoken rules as to what losses are to be grieved and frequently, these losses are not recognized, leaving parents to grieve their loss alone with no support. Disenfranchised grief results as their loss is neither recognized nor seen as valued by society. As the loss is not recognized, expressing grief becomes difficult, causing additional emotional distress and inability to process the loss.

For those parents who experience the loss of young children and teens, most of these losses have been found to result in loss by accidents. The suddenness of the loss is very traumatic, reducing one's ability to cope with the loss and may produce post-traumatic stress response. Not only will there be shock, denial, and sadness over the loss of their child, but anger towards those who were responsible for the accident. Accidental deaths deny the family an opportunity to prepare for the loss, say their goodbyes, making these losses difficult to comprehend and grieve.

The loss of young adults may include those who have died tragically of drug overdoses or suicide. Families suffering such losses often encounter stigmatization and once again experience disenfranchised grief leaving them alone to suffer a horrible loss. In addition, these losses can also cause feelings of guilt, blame, and unanswered questions that complicate the grieving process.

On the other end of the spectrum is the loss of the adult child. When an adult man or woman dies, the attention and compassion is directed to the spouse and surviving children. Frequently, the surviving parents are neglected, never being acknowledged that they have now lost a cherished son or daughter. They have not only lost a child, but someone they thought was going to care for them in their later years. In some cases, these grandparents are now thrust into assuming the roles and responsibilities of the father or mother now that their child is no longer there to raise their grandchildren. This can have a drastic effect on their lifestyle. Yet for others, concerns for what will happen if the remaining spouse will re-marry in the future, and they will lose access to their grandchildren. Creating major shifts in one's roles and responsibilities in life and adding uncertainty in later life after having set life's goals, can result in anxiety and distress in addition to the loss of a dear child.

As a bereavement counselor, I frequently hear the expression from bereaved loved ones': "I feel as though I have lost a part of myself." It is the loss of a child that this comment truly is fitting as a child is an extension of oneself. This loss's devastating nature highlights the importance of support for the surviving loved ones: family, friends, grief support groups, and organizations willing to witness the depth and immensity of the loss. It is particularly important to partner with those who have suffered a similar loss for it is those who understand not only what it feels to experience such a loss but can help navigate the rocky pathway towards healing.

Marlene Enderlein

Marlene's career was in cardiology, working with pediatric cardiologists and adult congenital heart specialists, caring for children born with heart defects. She witnessed how receiving a diagnosis of a fatal or significant heart defect in utero or in a newborn infant had a lifetime effect on the parents and family structure. She retired after 33 years and pursued her Master's degree in Mental Health and Wellness with a specialty in grief and bereavement and is currently a bereavement counselor with hospice. She recently published her book: "Looking Into the Eye of Grief: An Illustrative View of the Essence of Grief."

THE COMPASSIONATE FRIENDS CREDO

WE NEED NOT WALK ALONE. WE ARE THE COMPASSIONATE FRIENDS. WE REACH OUT TO EACH OTHER WITH LOVE, WITH UNDERSTANDING, AND WITH HOPE. THE CHILDREN WE MOURN HAVE DIED AT ALL AGES AND FROM MANY DIFFERENT CAUSES, BUT OUR LOVE FOR THEM UNITES US. YOUR PAIN BECOMES MY PAIN, JUST AS YOUR HOPE BECOMES MY HOPE. WE COME TOGETHER FROM ALL WALKS OF LIFE, FROM MANY DIFFERENT CIRCUMSTANCES. WE ARE A UNIQUE FAMILY BECAUSE WE REPRESENT MANY RACES, CREEDS, AND RELATIONSHIPS. WE ARE YOUNG, AND WE ARE OLD. SOME OF US ARE FAR ALONG IN OUR GRIEF, BUT OTHERS STILL FEEL A GRIEF SO FRESH AND SO INTENSELY PAINFUL THAT THEY FEEL HELPLESS AND SEE NO HOPE. SOME OF US HAVE FOUND OUR FAITH TO BE A SOURCE OF STRENGTH, WHILE SOME OF US ARE STRUGGLING TO FIND ANSWERS. SOME OF US ARE ANGRY, FILLED WITH GUILT OR IN DEEP DEPRESSION, WHILE OTHERS RADIATE AN INNER PEACE. BUT WHATEVER PAIN WE BRING TO THIS GATHERING OF THE COMPASSIONATE FRIENDS, IT IS PAIN WE WILL SHARE, JUST AS WE SHARE WITH EACH OTHER OUR LOVE FOR THE CHILDREN WHO HAVE DIED. WE ARE ALL SEEKING AND STRUGGLING TO BUILD A FUTURE FOR OURSELVES, BUT WE ARE COMMITTED TO BUILDING A FUTURE TOGETHER. WE REACH OUT TO EACH OTHER IN LOVE TO SHARE THE PAIN AS WELL AS THE JOY, SHARE THE ANGER AS WELL AS THE PEACE, SHARE THE FAITH AS WELL AS THE DOUBTS, AND HELP EACH OTHER TO GRIEVE AS WELL AS TO GROW. WE NEED NOT WALK ALONE. WE ARE THE COMPASSIONATE FRIENDS.

LOVE AND HOPE

On a cold winter day, the sun went out,
Grief walked in to stay.
I turned away from the unwanted guest
And bid him be on his way.
Grief was merciless, he brought his friends,
Loneliness, Fear and Despair.
They walk these rooms, unceasingly,
In the somber cloaks they wear.
Every so often now, Love pays a call
She always has Hope by her side.

I welcome Love as well as Hope,
For I thought surely they had died.
Love counsels Grief in a most gentle way,
Bids him be still for awhile.
Then Love walks with me through memory's hall,
And for a time I can smile.

In loving memory of her son Michael Kerry Marston

A DOZEN ROSES

If I had a dozen roses, I know just what I'd do.
I'd give each one a name that reminded me of you.
The first rose I'd name "sunshine" cause you brighten every day.
The second would be "beauty", the kind that never goes away.
The third rose would be priceless, like those hugs
you gave to me
I'd name the fourth one "silly", oh how funny you could be.
Rose five, of course, is "patience", something you have helped me find.
The sixth rose I'd call "memories", the precious gift you left behind.

The seventh and the eight rose would for sure be
"faith" and "grace".
Nine would be "unique" because no one can take your place.
The tenth rose, well, that's easy; I'd simply name
it "love".
Eleven, I'd call "angel"; I know you're watching from above.
I'd think about that twelfth rose, and I'd really take my time.
After all these roses are for you, my Valentine.
I'm sending them to heaven in every color that I know.
So number twelve I'll name "forever", that's how long I will love you so.

Valentines in Heaven

Are there Valentines in Heaven?
Are there Red Hearts everywhere?
Do they line the golden streets,
Or is that very rare?
I wish that I could send you one,
Right through Heaven's Gate,
To say how much we miss you,
On this special date.
I'd like to send a Candy Heart,
That is printed, "I Luv U,"
And maybe you would whisper back,
"I know, I Luv U too."

That follow me each day,
Cast your shadow in my life

Or the lyrics of a song
Make me stop and think of you
Sometimes all day long

NEWSLETTER DEDICATION IN LOVING MEMORY OF Nicholas Joseph Pezant

November 8, 1984 ~ February 5, 2005

Remembrance

What do we do when we love someone
But they have gone away
When all our days of bright sunlight
Have turned to shades of gray?
What do we say when no comfort comes
From words of love and hope
When efforts made seem pointless
As we fight each day to cope?
How do we act when we hear their name
And we cannot help but cry
This isn't fair, they were barely here
It's not time to say goodbye!
We promise them that they have made
A place within our hearts
Where they will live forever
Though we are far apart
We call upon the memories
As time allowed and then
Tuck them safely in our minds
To visit now and again
We cherish them as best we can
Each smile, each word, each look
We write the story they want told
On the pages of life's book
For most important is the vow
We honor when they're gone
Of sharing all they've given us
From that moment on

Dear Nicholas,

This February 5, 2025 will be 20 years since you left us. I really do not know how I survived this long without seeing you. When you first left I couldn't imagine going a few months without seeing you and now....it's 20 years!!

I used to worry that I would forget things about you...your laugh and your voice mostly. But, I can still recall both, thank goodness.

Life is not the same without you here. There is a lonesome feeling too hard to explain. Many of your friends still talk about you, how funny you were. You brought a lot of laughter and good memories to many friends and family. Your cousins Jennifer, Jason and Cameron miss you tremendously. And of course, your sister Emily misses you. I have the belief that I will see you again and look forward to the day we will be united once again. Until then I will continue to love you and miss you.

All my love, to my son, Nicholas!! Mom
