ANNUAL BUTTERFLY RELEASE

GRIEF

Grief is not just an emotion—it's an unraveling, a space where something once lived but is now gone. It carves through you, leaving a hollow ache where love once resided.

In the beginning, it feels unbearable, like a wound that will never close. But over time, the raw edges begin to mend. The pain softens, but the imprint remains—a quiet reminder of what once was. The truth is, you never truly "move on." You move with it.

See Grief on Page 3

So many things can live in a human heart all at once. Grief and gratitude. Love and loss. Hurt and hope.

Seemingly opposite things, all begging to take up space and be seen and heard.

But, life is learning to live in the tension. To feel the things you need to feel. To process at your own pace. To allow other people in when it feels impossible to face.

And above all else, even here, to hope. To let the gentle whisper of hope comfort and guide our broken hearts.

Hope and grief, together in one hurting heart. May we all do our best to carry both.

- LIZ NEWMAN

BIRTHDAY RECOGNITION: Birthdays can be found on "Our Children Remembered" page. We do encourage both you and your family to come when it is your child's birthday month, to share your child with all of us with photos and memories. You will receive a special birthday gift in memory of your child. Bring that treasured picture of your child that always makes you smile so we may smile with you. The March Birthday Cake was sponsored by Isabel Miranda-Vigne in memory of brother, Lazaro Miranda. The April Birthday Cake will be sponsored by Christi Vercher in memory of son, John "Jay" Lawson V.

The mission of The Compassionate Friends is to assist families toward the positive resolution of grief following the death of a child of any age and to provide information to help others be supportive.

Our Monthly Meetings

To all those newly bereaved, who are receiving this newsletter for the first time and to all our Compassionate Friends, we wish you were not eligible to belong to this group, but we want you to know that you and your family have many friends. We, who received love and compassion from others in our time of deep sorrow, now wish to offer the same support and understanding to you. Please know we understand, we care, and we want to help. You are not alone in your grief.

Meetings are held the 2nd Monday of each month at the Foundation Center Conference Room in Lafreniere Park at 7:00 P.M. We are a self-sustaining organization with no funds except what we receive through donations from members and newsletter recipients. Please join with us at a meeting.

Grief support after the death of a child

The Compassionate Friends is a national non-profit, self-help support organization that offers friendship, understanding, and hope to bereaved parents, grandparents and siblings. There is no religious affiliation and there are no membership dues or fees.

The secret of TCF's success is simple: As seasoned grievers reach out to the newly bereaved, energy that has been directed inward begins to flow outward and both are helped to heal.

The vision of The Compassionate Friends is that everyone who needs us will find us and everyone who finds us will be helped.

TCF Greater New Orleans Chapter Butterfly Release

Our Annual Butterfly Release Ceremony will be Sunday, Apr. 27, 2025.

Bereaved families, relatives and friends who have experienced the death of a child are invited to attend The Compassionate Friends' Annual Butterfly Release and Picnic in remembrance of all beloved children who have died. The picnic begins at 11:30 a.m. at The Compassionate Friends Children's Memorial Garden. The garden is located behind the Foundation Center in Lafreniere Park. The picnic is a time to gather and socialize, to play, and to be family. Families are asked to bring their own food, tables, and chairs; or just bring a blanket to sit on.

You may come for just the Butterfly Release ceremony scheduled to start at 1:00 p.m. There will be a program of readings, poems, and music. We will have 300 Painted Lady butterflies for our bereaved families. The butterflies are nestled in specially designed envelopes. It is an exciting and impressive sight to share as the envelopes are opened and the butterflies take flight!..We will also have an additional 100 butterflies, which will be released at one time! The Butterfly Release is not a time to mourn for our children who have died too soon. It is a time to Celebrate that They Lived! Since early times the butterfly has symbolized renewed life. The Compassionate Friends has adopted the butterfly as one of its symbols and a sign of hope to us that our children are living in another dimension with greater beauty and freedom.

If you wish to bring a dessert to share, please do so by bringing single-serve items.

Please feel free to bring a Framed Photo of your loved one to be placed on our Memorial Table during our Butterfly Release. Please try to keep the Frames under 11x13 in size.

For more information please contact William or Millie Hunton at 504-265-0581 or email tcfnola@gmail.com.

The love you had does not disappear; it transforms. It lingers in the echoes of laughter, in the warmth of old memories, in the silent moments where you still reach for what is no longer there. And that's okay.

Grief is not a burden to be hidden. It is not a weakness to be ashamed of. It is the deepest proof that love existed, that something beautiful once touched your life. So let yourself feel it. Let yourself mourn. Let yourself remember.

There is no timeline, no "right" way to grieve. Some days will be heavy, and some will feel lighter. Some moments will bring unexpected waves of sadness, while others will fill you with gratitude for the love you were lucky enough to experience.

Honor your grief, for it is sacred. It is a testament to the depth of your heart. And in time, through the pain, you will find healing—not because you have forgotten, but because you have learned how to carry both love and loss together.

~ Anonymous (author unknown)

We must try our best to live on in the love they left behind... that's where the long road of healing begins!

THE COMPASSIONATE FRIENDS CREDO

WE NEED NOT WALK ALONE. WE ARE THE COMPASSIONATE FRIENDS. WE REACH OUT TO EACH OTHER WITH LOVE, WITH UNDERSTANDING, AND WITH HOPE. THE CHILDREN WE MOURN HAVE DIED AT ALL AGES AND FROM MANY DIFFERENT CAUSES, BUT OUR LOVE FOR THEM UNITES US. YOUR PAIN BECOMES MY PAIN, JUST AS YOUR HOPE BECOMES MY HOPE. WE COME TOGETHER FROM ALL WALKS OF LIFE, FROM MANY DIFFERENT CIRCUMSTANCES. WE ARE A UNIQUE FAMILY BECAUSE WE REPRESENT MANY RACES, CREEDS, AND RELATIONSHIPS. WE ARE YOUNG, AND WE ARE OLD. SOME OF US ARE FAR ALONG IN OUR GRIEF, BUT OTHERS STILL FEEL A GRIEF SO FRESH AND SO INTENSELY PAINFUL THAT THEY FEEL HELPLESS AND SEE NO HOPE. SOME OF US HAVE FOUND OUR FAITH TO BE A SOURCE OF STRENGTH, WHILE SOME OF US ARE STRUGGLING TO FIND ANSWERS. SOME OF US ARE ANGRY, FILLED WITH GUILT OR IN DEEP DEPRESSION, WHILE OTHERS RADIATE AN INNER PEACE. BUT WHATEVER PAIN WE BRING TO THIS GATHERING OF THE COMPASSIONATE FRIENDS, IT IS PAIN WE WILL SHARE, JUST AS WE SHARE WITH EACH OTHER OUR LOVE FOR THE CHILDREN WHO HAVE DIED. WE ARE ALL SEEKING AND STRUGGLING TO BUILD A FUTURE FOR OURSELVES, BUT WE ARE COMMITTED TO BUILDING A FUTURE TOGETHER. WE REACH OUT TO EACH OTHER IN LOVE TO SHARE THE PAIN AS WELL AS THE JOY, SHARE THE ANGER AS WELL AS THE PEACE, SHARE THE FAITH AS WELL AS THE DOUBTS, AND HELP EACH OTHER TO GRIEVE AS WELL AS TO GROW. WE NEED NOT WALK ALONE. WE ARE THE COMPASSIONATE FRIENDS.

DAYS OF GRIEF

There will be days when your grief is deep and consuming, dark and lonely. I hope you find refuge in supportive friends, family, and counselors on the days when you most need someone to sit beside you in that darkness.

There will be days when your grief is a bit more subtle and silent, content with buzzing in the background instead of being center stage. I hope you don't feel guilty for the days when this allows you to feel joy or hope. These days are so deeply important as you move forward at your own pace.

There will be days when your grief turns on a dime, demanding different things from you moment to moment, giving you emotional whiplash as you try and keep up. I hope you are gentle with yourself on these days. Your heart is looking for ways to process a love that has changed due to loss (a love that is still present, but in a different way). That is a lot of work on a weary soul.

There will be days when your grief softens enough to allow your mind to wander in memories, to rejoice in remembering, to allow the light to trickle in to the most painful spaces. And on those days, I hope you let the comfort surround you like a warm sweater. I hope you let the light in and feel it surrounding you. Because grief will bring about many different kinds of days. May we take them one day at a time, one moment at a time, and make room for the tension that it brings.

NEWSLETTER DEDICATION IN LOVING MEMORY OF
Chelsea Marie Hunton
April 17, 1986 ~ October 17, 2016

Happy Heavenly Birthday our dear Chelsea

Over eight years has passed and our hearts are still aching. No one can give us the comfort we crave by bringing our Chelsea back. We desperately desire to hold her in our arms, to hug her, to kiss her, and to hear her sweet voice again. At times, I feel she is near and must know how much we miss her and what is happening in our lives. But, our dreams have the power to momentarily bring her back to us. We often feel her presence in our dreams where we would visualize her taking our hand and we would wrap our arms around her, not wanting to ever let her go. We sit quietly alone, listening to her voice, touching her hand, kissing her face, and seeing the sparkle in her beautiful blue eyes. We would picture her free from life's problems, all her ailments, and her suffering. Now, being free to pursue the glories of Heaven. But, after awakening from the dream, we plunge back to darkness and gloom. Her death was sudden and we continue to feel horrible with such a broken heart that we were not with her to comfort her as she went through such pain of feeling she needed to turn to drugs. Chelsea left this life too soon and we would have given anything to prevent her death. Chelsea's death left a deep and lasting impact on those she touched. We keep her alive in our memories picturing her beautiful smile, her happy soul, her gust for life, and her constant desire to help others. As time passes, the pain dulls. But, we will never be as we were before. Her death has changed us as her parents, and nothing could have prepared us for the heartbreak of losing our child. Many days have gone by and memories are all that we have. We continue to say her name and talk about our beautiful memories we had together. Somehow, we continue to go forward. We are strong, we are weak. Grief doesn't go away. But just remember you are always in our hearts and one day we will all be together again – as long as we breathe you'll always be remembered.

Empty Places

I drove the old way yesterday.
 It'd been a while, you see.
 And there, without a warning,
 the pain washed over me.

I drove the old way yesterday
 and sadness came on strong,
 taken back by so much feeling,
 since you've been gone so long.

Places seem to lie in wait
 to summon up the tears,
 to say remember yesterday,
 those days when you were here.

Places where you laughed and played are places where I cry.
 These places hold the memories
 that will live as long as I.

April 13, 2016 – October 17, 2017

My beautiful baby Amina. You were a happy, healthy little girl when I saw you last and I kissed you goodbye, never imagining it would be the last time. You brought me so much joy, and I can only imagine who you'd be today, on your 9th birthday. I miss you with every breathe, every ray of sunshine, every moment of beauty: because I know that's where you live. And I still hold you close and treasure you, my beautiful baby Amina.

... still

Here I am, 14 years later, missing you so very much still.
Daddy and I made it through the tough times and love each other so much still.
Zoe has a hard time most days but she's safe at home still.
I think of all the things we could've, should've, done as a family still.
I continue to wonder if I should have stayed still.
It always comes back to they need me more than you need me still.
Most days I'm ok, good even, but those other days take the breath out of me still.
The hollowness that is within me feels vast and consuming and frightening and overwhelming still.
I continue the epic fight against the darkness that wants to take over my soul still.
Here I am, standing with my brave face and broken heart, in an unrelenting world without you still.
I am, and will forever be, chasing the glimmer of peace still.

My little love, I love and miss you still.

NEWSLETTER DEDICATION IN LOVING MEMORY OF Jessica Talley

April 28, 1984 – January 31, 2021

January 31st made four years that my beautiful daughter Jessica gained her wings and went to her eternal home. We didn't know we only had 36 years to make memories, but because of Jess we have so many memories to keep alive. She taught me so much in life! Her attitude was always positive even during her last days. She taught me to live life to the fullest, and most of all, to always have faith and hope, and to always stay close to your family and friends. Jessica was the best mother to her sweet little girl! While I was blessed to have Jess for 36 years, her daughter only had four years with her mother. In those four years, Jessica devoted her whole life to Loving and caring for her little girl. Thank you Jessica for loving me and for being my best friend. You gave me the courage and strength to keep breathing and living. "Everything will be okay". Fly high my baby girl and until we meet again please keep watching over all us every day.

Love you with all my heart. Mom.

It is so hard to believe that on the 23rd of this month you will have been gone 4 years. No mother should lose two children in 100 days.

My sweet baby girl who brought so much to our family. If there was a chance you could be a part of you were first in line. You gave so much of yourself to anything you were a part of. You never met a stranger and were always willing to help others. You loved all of us unconditionally and eventually became a fearless leader. I remember how hard you worked to find me a Toni doll because I said as a child I always wanted one.

Our trips to New York were always planned by you, from air tickets, limo pick up, to show tickets, dinner, etc. All planned by you. I am so happy that the one thing in your life you wanted most of all was to be Captain of Isis, and you achieved that with a lot of help from Joyce, the former Captain.

You will never know how much I miss you both. Here's hoping you know how very proud I am to have raised my children to be the such wonderful people. My message to you is, "I will always love you."

Happy Heavenly Birthday

To My Son, Happy 37th Heavenly Birthday
Each year on this special day, I celebrate your birth, Jay.
Today and always will never become just another day,
I will remember and honor you in every special way.
I will treasure the memories of your birthdays I was able to share and get you through,
You are with me still in everything I do.
Having to live this life without you in it is a pain I wish I never knew,
But each day that passes brings me closer to you.
There will always be Sadness, Heartache, Grief, Pain, and Tears,
That will never go away no matter the years.
I cherish and hold onto what you mean to me,
How much you mean to me you can now see.
Every day of every hour I miss you more and more,
The hole in my heart and emptiness I feel I cannot ignore.
You are always in my thoughts and how much I Love you so,
I'll never get over having to let you go.
Please continue watching over us all from Heaven above,
The memory of you will forever live on with our never-ending Love.
I would give anything to be able to hug you, kiss you, hear your voice again,
But for now, I close my eyes and I can see your face, Until then.
Love you Always,

HE KNOWS, HE KNOWS

By: Rachel May Wilson

Listen closely, my heart doth say.
He has not left you, he's here to stay.
I hear his whisper on a gentle bayou breeze, I feel his arms encircling me.
Hush says the wind as the old porch swing sways. Sit beside me as night takes over day.
The lump in my throat threatens to close. The old oak tree whispers, "he knows, he knows."
Tears fall like an afternoon rain
The streetcar bell calls his name
The trumpet players play his song
The mourners march and hum along
The river flows and curves effortlessly
As the seagulls cry, "remember me."
My voice is cracking, I fear I cannot speak. Thoughts of him envelope me.
The Green Wave ceases to crest. The jazz musicians place their instruments to rest.
The key is turned, the engine stops. The floor beneath me seems to drop.
Hush ways the wind as the old porch swing sways. Did you know I loved you Big Dave?
The lump in my throat threatens to close. The old oak tree whispers, "he knows, he knows."
