THE BONDS OF SHARED GRIEF by Shari O'Loughlin

Divisiveness and intolerance for others' views seem prevalent all around us today. We see it in our political beliefs, social justice concerns, and health environment. It is apparent within families, workplaces, and organizations. When we are grieving the painful death of a child, grandchild, or sibling, this divisiveness creates walls that can make our sorrow even deeper. It's difficult enough when we're grieving to feel connected to the people around us, and these dividing walls can further isolate us.

BIRTHDAY RECOGNITION: Birthdays can be found on "Our Children Remembered" page. We do encourage both you and your family to come when it is your child's birthday month, to share your child with all of us with photos and memories. You will receive a special birthday gift in memory of your child. Bring that treasured picture of your child that always makes you smile so we may smile with you. The October Birthday Cake was sponsored by Andree Charvet in memory of her son William "Billy" Laderer. The November Birthday Cake will be sponsored by Cheryl and Roland Bourgeois in memory of their son Jeremy Bourgeois.

*****

A memory shared about a lost loved one can feel like a piece of them returned to us through another person's eyes. Memories give our past moments a secure spot in our future. It is our way of carrying love, in all its beautiful resilience, forward through time. - Liz Newman

Our Monthly Meetings

To all those newly bereaved, who are receiving this newsletter for the first time and to all our Compassionate Friends, we wish you were not eligible to belong to this group, but we want you to know that you and your family have many friends. We, who received love and compassion from others in our time of deep sorrow, now wish to offer the same support and understanding to you. Please know we understand, we care, and we want to help. You are not alone in your grief.

Meetings are held the 2nd Monday of each month at the Foundation Center Conference Room in Lafreniere Park at 7:00 P.M. We are a self-sustaining organization with no funds except what we receive through donations from members and newsletter recipients. Please join with us at a meeting.

Grief support after the death of a child

The Compassionate Friends is a national non-profit, self-help support organization that offers friendship, understanding, and hope to bereaved parents, grandparents and siblings. There is no religious affiliation and there are no membership dues or fees.

The secret of TCF's success is simple: As seasoned grievers reach out to the newly bereaved, energy that has been directed inward begins to flow outward and both are helped to heal.

The vision of The Compassionate Friends is that everyone who needs us will find us and everyone who finds us will be helped.

The Meeting Agenda

7:00 p.m. - The meeting will begin with a short introduction followed by lighting of candle and then reading of the Credo. Remembering our children's birthdays of the month. Then followed by smaller groups of sharing.

8:45 p.m. - Meeting will close by recognizing our children's names. Feel free to visit with each other and check out a book from our library.

Newsletter Submissions: TCF Greater New Orleans welcomes all submissions to our newsletter. Send articles, poetry, love messages and scanned photos to: TCF GNO, 1104 Colony Rd., Metairie, LA 70003. You may also text photos and messages to 504-251-1938. As our chapter is only funded by your donations, we ask for a donation of $15 or more for a dedication for our newsletter. This is tax-deductible. We reserve the right to edit for space and/or content. Deadline for submissions is listed below. TCF Chapters may copy articles from this publication provided credit is given to the author and the original source. Errors and Omissions: Please notify me if any of your information is incorrect. Thank you!

Newsletter Dedications to be put in our newsletter are due the 20th of each month.

A Newsletter Dedication: is a special page dedicated in memory of your child with a poem or writing that you submit.

A Love Gift: is a short one or two sentence message in your child's memory.

*****

BIRTHDAY CAKE: Our child's birthday is still such an important day to us bereaved parents. In TCF this is where we can celebrate our child's birthday and remember the love we still have for them no matter how long it has been since they died. Our members are welcomed to sponsor our cake to recognize their child's birthday. Please notify me if you wish to sponsor our Birthday Cake, William Hunton (504) 265-0581.

Please make checks payable to: TCF – GNO, 1104 Colony Road, Metairie, LA 70003

The Compassionate Friends credo begins with these words:

We need not walk alone.

We are The Compassionate Friends

We reach out to each other with love, with understanding, and with hope.

The children we mourn have died at all ages and from many different causes, but our love for them unites us.

Uniting people who share this deep grief was the premise that started The Compassionate Friends. The death of our brother, sister, child, or grandchild permeates all aspects of our being. It's something that can't easily be explained to those who have not experienced it, while those who have, possess a deep and compassionate understanding that requires little explanation. The bonds within our TCF community can bridge these chasms we see around us. Rather than being further isolated in our grief, we can feel surrounded by understanding, community, and shared hope that can be lifesaving during this time.

While none of us would choose to be a part of this community given the reason that brought us, we are connected at a deeply meaningful level. It's hard to see someone across the table with a similar loss and stay in a place of intolerance and anger. When we remember what binds us as a group and honor our shared losses, we focus on supportive and comforting connectedness. When we reach for the love in our hearts that's bolstered by our shared sorrow, we can model a greater energy that's needed in our world. Our child, grandchild, or sibling who died and brought us to TCF is honored each time we choose this path of connection through our differences rather than more division because of them.

Warmly,

Shari O'Loughlin, MBA, CPC, Past CEO, The Compassionate Friends

A SEASON OF GRATITUDE AND GIVING

As autumn settles in, the air begins to change—cooler evenings, golden leaves drifting to the ground, and the quiet beauty that comes with the turning of seasons. For many, fall brings thoughts of comfort, reflection, and gratitude. It's a season that invites us to slow down, to look back on the months behind us, and to give thanks for those who have walked beside us along the way.

At The Compassionate Friends, we understand that every season carries both beauty and challenge for those who grieve. As the days grow shorter and the holidays approach, many feel the weight of missing their child, sibling, or grandchild a little more deeply. Yet, time and again, we also see the light that shines through the darkness—brought forth by caring volunteers who show up with open hearts and listening ears.

This fall, I want to take a moment to express my deepest gratitude to each of you who has given your time, your kindness, and your compassion to support grieving families through our mission. Whether you lead a Chapter meeting, moderate a virtual support group, help organize an event, or quietly reach out to another member in need—you are the heartbeat of The Compassionate Friends. You are what turns compassion into action.

You, our volunteers, make it possible for someone, somewhere, to feel a little less alone on one of the hardest journeys a person can walk. Every smile offered, every story shared, every tear honored in silence makes a difference that can never be measured on paper but is felt deeply in the hearts of those you serve.

Volunteering with The Compassionate Friends is not just service; it's healing work. It's a way to honor the lives of our loved ones by walking beside others in their grief. You don't need special training—just a willingness to listen, to care, and to understand. Our team will guide and support you every step of the way. Together, we can ensure that every parent, grandparent, and sibling who needs TCF has a place to belong.

In the same way that fall reminds us of life's cycles—letting go, resting, renewing—your work as volunteers reminds us that love endures beyond loss. Even as leaves fall, the roots grow stronger underground. That is the essence of The Compassionate Friends: the strength that comes from shared understanding and the quiet hope that grows from connection.

As we move through this season, I encourage you to take a moment to reflect on what your involvement with The Compassionate Friends has meant to you. Perhaps think of someone who was there for you when you first came to a meeting, or a time when your words or presence made a difference to another bereaved family. These moments—often small and unseen—are the threads that hold our community together.

From the bottom of my heart, thank you. Thank you for the countless hours, the emotional energy, and the dedication you bring to this work. Thank you for your patience and your compassion, for leading through your own grief, and for giving others a reason to believe that hope can return.

As we enter this season of gratitude, let us remember that together, we embody the heart of The Compassionate Friends. Each act of kindness, each meeting held, and each volunteer who says “yes” keeps the promise of hope alive for another family in need.

May this fall bring you moments of peace, gentle reflection, and renewed purpose.

With appreciation and gratitude,

Brenda Busby - Director of Operations and Volunteers - The Compassionate Friends

We invite you to join us on December 14, 2025 for our Greater New Orleans Chapter Worldwide Candle Lighting

There will be an outdoor picnic before the ceremony starting at 4:30 P.M. at the Foundation Center Outdoor Patio in Lafreniere Park. Each family brings their own food. We start at 4:30 pm to avoid the public lines viewing the park Holiday Lights. Due to the enormous amount of traffic in the park because of the holiday light display we would like to get everyone in the park before they close the Veterans Blvd. entrance. Everyone is welcomed! Our ceremony will start by 6:00 pm. We will have a wonderful presentation of lights, songs, poems, and readings followed by our Worldwide Candle Lighting. Candles will be provided. Volunteers are needed for setup and tear down. If you would like to help with the Candle Lighting set up, please call the TCF at 504-265-0581.

PRESENTATION SLIDESHOW

During our show there will be an ongoing Slideshow of our children, grandchildren, and siblings who have died too soon. Please send me your photo to be included in the Slideshow if I do not have one already or if you wish to update it. You may email or text me your photo. Please ensure you include the name.

Send to tcfnola@gmail.com or 504-265-0581.

Please bring a framed photo of your loved one to be placed on the Memorial Table.

Brick Order Due Date – November 1st

If you would like to include your child's, grandchild's, or sibling's name in our garden this year, please be sure to have your order submitted by November 1st. This ensures your brick will be placed in time for our next event, our WorldWide Candle Lighting.

Take a quiet moment to reflect — and consider this beautiful way to express the everlasting bond you share. Our garden is more than a place; it is a living testament to love, remembrance, and hope. Please find our Brick Form attached.

Our Brick Orders are managed by Peggy Boardman, her mailing information is listed below.
Mail to: TCF-GNO Brick Orders, 267 Citrus Road, River Ridge, LA 70123,

October 27, 1987 - March 29, 2022

I hope you knew how special you were. How beautiful you were. How much fun you were. How you brightened a room. How you blessed our lives. How proud we were of you. How much we enjoyed being with you. How many smiles you gave us. How loved you were. I hope you know how much we still love you. How much you are missed. How we are trying to keep going. How we think of you always. How we are trying to smile again. How God is giving us strength. How your life and death touched so many. I hope you don't know how lonely we are without you. How many tears we have cried and will cry. How angry we get sometimes. How our hearts break more daily. How sad your sons look sometimes. How this sadness will go on and on. How many things we will never get to do. How many things don't matter anymore. How we'll never get over losing you.

In Loving and Everlasting Memory Of Our Daughter, Aliesha.

You were taken from us so suddenly 15 years ago dear Al,

You had so much life left to live...

So many sunrises to wake up to, so many more memories to make, so much more love to receive.

It will forever break our hearts that you didn't get that time.

We miss you more than ever and we keep longing to see you each and every day more than ever as time goes by without you. Forever loved and always missed.

Newsletter Dedication in Loving Memory of Alexis Bounds

November 9, 1981 - July 24, 2019

Happy Heavenly Birthday, Alexis!

Today we will celebrate you with cake and ice cream just as if you were here. I'll make a wish and send you a kiss by way of the stars. Continue to be our guardian angel watching over us and especially your boys. We feel your presence, keep the love and signs coming. Forever loved and remembered.

Cheers, Mom and family,

Your Birthday arrives year after year,
We always celebrate though you are not here.
It's strange, but true and maybe sounds wrong,
But, I still sing to you the Birthday song.
I sing it out loud as though you're still here,
I smile at the memories and wish you were near.
To see your face to hug you once more,
To hear your voice is what I wish for.
I hope that you hear me as I believe that you do,
and know just how much I am missing you.
Though years may pass your memory will stay,
As near and as dear as it is every day.

My Dearest William,
This is your 11th Birthday spent in Heaven and I hope you're having the best celebration up there. I knew the day would come when your beloved dog Deuce would no longer be here with me, and when he took his final breath on 9/30/25, it felt like losing you all over again. He was the last living piece of you I held onto here, and I miss him so much. But I know you & Jade were waiting for him. I can picture the three of you now finally reunited and running free together forever. That thought is the only thing that brings me peace today. I still miss you as much now as I ever have. I want you to know that the promise I made to care for him was fulfilled; he was loved as if he were my own until his very last moment when he returned home to you. I love you my Son and carry you forever in my heart. Happy Birthday. Love, Mom

AN ETERNAL MEMORY OF A MUCH LOVED SON

This is for someone wonderful as loved as one could be for you were everything in life you meant the world, you see
And sometimes life can be unkind
When hearts are torn in two
But nothing ever could compare to the pain of losing you
But all the love you left behind,
Forever will live on
And so until we meet again
Rest peacefully, dear Son.

Dear Trey, I was sitting in the deer stand that we built together, and you camouflaged with cans of paid and wild leaves from the forest. The beautiful red cardinals wer Dedication sent in by Vicki Cain the field. The empty chair was next to me, but I knew you were sitting there too. I said a little prayer to you and there came momma deer and her two fawns, so I could watch them play. Thank you for listening to me and always watching over us. Our hearts will be forever broken, but we will look forward to the day we will be together again. Happy Heavenly 41st Birthday Trey!

We Love & Miss you,

For My Son Stephan, With All My Love

1,339 days have passed since I last hugged you, since I last heard your laughter,
since the world changed forever.

There is not a day I don't carry you with me—in my heart, in my thoughts, in every breath.
You are woven into everything I do, and everything I am.
Your love, your light, your beautiful spirit live on in ways that words will never fully capture.

I miss you with a depth that cannot be measured, but I also love you with a strength that death can never steal.
You were, and will always be, my greatest gift.

This is for you, my sweet boy—
for your memory, your soul, your smile that still shines in my dreams.
I will carry you always.

With all my love, Momma

ON THE DEATH OF THE BELOVED

Though we need to weep your loss,
You dwell in that safe place in our hearts
Where no storm or night or pain can reach you.

Your love was like the dawn
Brightening over our lives,
Awakening beneath the dark
A further adventure of color.

The sound of your voice
Found for us
A new music
That brightened everything.

Whatever you enfolded in your gaze
Quickened in the joy of its being;
You placed smiles like flowers
On the altar of the heart,
Your mind always sparkled
With the wonder at things.

Though your days here were brief,
Your spirit was alive, awake, complete.

Though we cannot see you with outward eyes,
We know our souls gaze is upon your face,
Smiling back at us from within everything
To which we bring our best refinement.

We look toward each other no longer
From the old distance of our names;
Now you dwell inside the rhythm of breath,
As close to us as we are to ourselves.

Let us not look for you only in memory,
Where we would grow lonely without you.
You would want us to find you in presence,
Besides us when beauty brightens,
When kindness glows
And music echoes eternal tones.

When orchids brighten the earth,
Darkest winter has turned to spring;
May this dark grief flower with hope
In every heart that loves you.

May you continue to inspire us:
To enter each day with a generous heart.
To serve the call of courage and love
Until we see your beautiful face again
In that land where there is no more separation,
Where all tears will be wiped from our mind,
And where we will never lose you again.

Happy 18th Birthday my Doodlebug

*From bullseyes and band, bowling and darts.
From playing pirates at the camp and fishing after dark.*

From Trumpets to Mellophone, then French Horns and to Tuba, how much you've grown in your love for all music.

*It was a joy to watch you grow and become a wonderful young man.
How could this world be robbed of all your talents and future plans.*

*From watching you at your concerts or marching in parades.
Those times we will hold onto, to get us through our days.*

*For now we cannot touch you and we cannot see your face.
But we know you are in Heaven with Our Father and his Grace.*

*We know you're watching over us and will never leave our side.
But nothing can take away this pain, this grief that's deep inside.*

*They say that time will heal and for some that may be true.
But my dear boy I need to feel this, for it's how I'll make it through.
Make it through my days, until I find my way to you.*

*You will be waiting for us at the gates of heaven until then our not so little baby boy,
our amazing, young man, Devon*

*I will talk to you everyday and yearn to feel your touch
You have no idea, your dad and I just miss you so darn much.*

*So say hello to Mema, Grandma, Aunt Patty and Aunt Marie Tell PawPaw that we miss him and kiss Maw Maw once for Me.
Tell them all we love them and we know together again,
We will someday be.*

Doodle, my angel, Happy Heavenly Birthday! I miss you more than words and if love alone could have saved you, you'd still be here. Fly high and watch over us until we see you again. I love you my angel. I hope you know how proud of you I always was.

With all my love, Mom

We love and miss you more than words can say.
Mom, Dad, Brent, Brian & Lugg

Devon – Wishing you a happy birthday in your heavenly home. I miss everything about you, particularly your kind heart.
Be at peace until we all meet again.

With all my love, Dad

Hey Devon, I miss you very much. I hope to shoot airsoft and pump iron with you soon again. Until then, rest in peace little
